

MENZIES CREEK, MUSEUM & MORNING TEA

IF YOU'RE LOOKING FOR A GREAT DAY OUT WITH THE GRANDKIDS OR A NEW LOCATION FOR THE NEXT MORNING TEA SOCIAL, PUFFING BILLY RAILWAY IS THE PERFECT PLACE TO HEAD TO.

The world-famous steam train, Puffing Billy Railway, is Australia's favourite train and one of the finest preserved steam railways in the world. Commencing operation in Australia on December 18, 1900, and continuing to travel 24kms through the forests and fern gullies of the magnificent Dandenong Ranges to Emerald Lake Park and Gembrook, Puffing Billy is a not-for-profit organisation and genuine living museum.

GET UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL WITH RAILWAY RELICS FROM A BYGONE ERA AT THE MENZIES CREEK MUSEUM, BEFORE GATHERING TO ENJOY SOME MORNING TEA AND A GOOD CATCH UP IN THE SUNSHINE.

Today, Puffing Billy's newest experiences includes FREE access to our museum, along with morning tea at Menzies Creek. Free for all train ticket holders, passengers can now disembark at Menzies Creek Station for 45-minutes to explore the newly opened museum that showcases more than 52 rare, historic steam locomotives and railway-related artefacts.

Let the Little Toot Café take care of you with a fresh brew of coffee or tea or get straight to the tasty stuff with a selection of delicious sweet treats.
